This week we are looking at 'Goldilocks and the three bears & The three little pigs' as part of our theme this term, 'Once upon a time'.

We are looking at traditional tales and fairy tales of past and present. If you have a favourite story that you would like to share with us, please write your child's name on book and bring to nursery for us to look at.

Dates for your Diary: Parent Forum – 9am 30th January – please come for an informal chat with Mrs Cracknell.

This week we will be looking at 'Our favourite stories' Can you retell your favourite story? Don't forget Champion Challenge on Oxford reading buddy. Let's see if Andreae Class can read the most books in a week. Can you upload any observations on to your child's tapestry. Speak to Miss Smart if you need help.

Please can you bring in a wooden peg with your child's name on. Also please can we remind you to label your children's belongings esp coats and bags. A child has lost a yellow mustard coat (unfortunately not named)
